The preliminary amendment filed June 18, 2001 has been entered.

Claims 1-9, 14, 15, and 18-30 are cancelled.

Claims 31-40 are newly submitted.

Claims 10-13, 16, 17 and 31-40 are pending.

5 Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. § 121:

I. Claims 10 and 11, drawn to a polypeptide of SEQ ID NO: 2, classified in Class 530, subclass 370, for example.

II. Claims 10 and 12, drawn to a polypeptide of SEQ ID NO: 4, classified in Class 530, subclass 370, for example.

10 III. Claims 10 and 13, drawn to a polypeptide of SEQ ID NO: 6, classified in Class 530, subclass 370, for example.

IV. Claims 10 and 16, drawn to a polypeptide of SEQ ID NO: 12, classified in Class 530, subclass 370, for example.

15 V. Claims 10 and 17, drawn to a polypeptide of SEQ ID NO: 14, classified in Class 530, subclass 370, for example.

VI. Claim 31, drawn to a polypeptide of SEQ ID NO: 8, classified in Class 530, subclass 370, for example.

VII. Claim 32, drawn to a polypeptide of SEQ ID NO: 10, classified in Class 530, subclass 370, for example.

20 VIII. Claims 33-37 and 40, to the extent that the claims are drawn to a nucleic acid sequence encoding SEQ ID NO: 2, plants comprising said sequence, and a method of modifying the levels of very long chain fatty acids in a plant by transforming the plant with said sequence, classified in Class 800, subclass 281, for example.

IX. Claims 33-37 and 40, to the extent that the claims are drawn to a nucleic acid sequence encoding SEQ ID NO: 4, plants comprising said sequence, and a method of 5 modifying the levels of very long chain fatty acids in a plant by transforming the plant with said sequence, classified in Class 800, subclass 281, for example.

X. Claims 33-37 and 40, to the extent that the claims are drawn to a nucleic acid sequence encoding SEQ ID NO: 6, plants comprising said sequence, and a method of 10 modifying the levels of very long chain fatty acids in a plant by transforming the plant with said sequence, classified in Class 800, subclass 281, for example.

XI. Claims 33-37 and 40, to the extent that the claims are drawn to a nucleic acid sequence encoding SEQ ID NO: 12, plants comprising said sequence, and a method of modifying the levels of very long chain fatty acids in a plant by transforming the plant with said sequence, classified in Class 800, subclass 281, for example.

15 XII. Claims 33-37 and 40, to the extent that the claims are drawn to a nucleic acid sequence encoding SEQ ID NO: 14, plants comprising said sequence, and a method of modifying the levels of very long chain fatty acids in a plant by transforming the plant with said sequence, classified in Class 800, subclass 281, for example.

20 XIII. Claim 38, drawn to a transgenic plant comprising a nucleic acid encoding the protein of SEQ ID NO: 8, classified in Class 800, subclass, 298, for example.

XIV. Claim 39, drawn to a transgenic plant comprising a nucleic acid encoding the protein of SEQ ID NO: 10, classified in Class 800, subclass, 298, for example.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

5 Applicants are reminded that nucleotide sequences encoding different proteins are structurally distinct chemical compounds and are unrelated to one another. These sequences are thus deemed to normally constitute independent and distinct inventions within the meaning of 35 U.S.C. 121. Absent evidence to the contrary, each such nucleotide sequence is presumed to represent an independent and distinct invention, subject to a restriction requirement pursuant to 10 35 U.S.C. 121 and 37 CFR 1.141 et seq.

Inventions I-XIV are each distinct products and processes of use. Each is drawn to a distinct polypeptide or to a nucleic acid coding for a distinct enzymes, wherein each differs chemically and structurally, and the method of using one does not require any of the others and the plant transformed with one does not require any of the others. The polypeptides of Groups 15 I-VII are not required by the nucleic acids, methods and plants of Groups VIII-XIV, and do not require any of these, since the polypeptides can be made by a different method, such as by chemical synthesis or extraction. Therefore, the inventions of Groups I-XIV are capable of being separately made, independently used and the patentability one would not render either of the other obvious or unpatentable.

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown for their different classification and the requirement for additional areas of search restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Applicant is advised that the response to this requirement to be complete must include 5 an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed.

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 C.F.R. § 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a diligently-filed 10 petition under 37 C.F.R. § 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 C.F.R. § 1.17(h).
